Members of the Hotel Men's Association said this afternoon that they were at a loss to understand what prompted the strike. The demands of the International Hotel Workers' Union were heard and settled a month ago, they said.

BROWN'S AND MAILLARD CRIPPLED BY NOON WALKOUT.

The strike spread even to the Y. M. C. A. Building on West Twenty-third street, where twenty-three waiters and bedmakers walked out at noon, leaving the big establishment crippled. Forty-five waiters in the restaurant of the Hotel Maillard, at Thirty-fifth street and Fifth avenue, also chose the noon hour to emphasize the spread of the strike order; the head waiter walked out with them.

The International Hotel Workers' Union to-day formally served upon the Hotel Men's Association and the independent proprietors who are not members of that organization a sweeping schedule of demands. The ultimatum makes the flat demand that all "steady" waiters not being specified—shall receive not less than $20 a month, and that all "captains" shall receive not less than $70. "Omnibuses" shall not be paid less than $25 a month.

"There shall be no fines imposed upon any worker whatsoever," reads another important article of the waiters' ultimatum.

The situation at the commons in the Columbia College campus was one that brought hundreds of grinning and jibing students about the doors of the big eating hall, but which developed into a serious side when the time arrived for the noon meal.

In the middle of the breakfast hour one of the union waiters, known as "Pat", to the two hundred and more students who dine at the commons, approached the head waiter and began to harangue him. The head waiter grabbed him and started to run him out of the dining hall, to the applause of the students, who were spooning their mush and cracking their eggs, all unaware of the labor troubles brewing in their midst. Suddenly "Pat" turned and yelled, "All tower over his head and yelled, 'All out!'"

All of the thirty-five union waiters, kitchen helpers and bus boys, except the head chef, went to the locker rooms and took off their uniforms. Two of the assistant student waiters, who were having their breakfast, hurried into their aprons and served the remainder of the meal.

Within an hour union pickets were padding up and down in front of the door of the commons chanting, "Don't patronize this place. We're on strike." The student waiters were wondering timorously what would happen to them if they continued serving their fellow college mates without joining the union.

When the noon meal was served the full corps of student waiters filed into the big dining hall, unhindered by the strike pickets, and did their best to answer the call of hungry students for food. But their work was hampered outside of the student force.

"We are so much in favor of home rule that he does not want to interfere in local matters in New York City, unless it is absolutely necessary for the good of the State," he said.

"If you want to see the Governor regarding the successor to Mr. Wilcox, he thinks it advisable for you to appoint a committee, and he will be glad to take the matter up with the committee at the Executive Chamber the latter part of next week, or at any other time convenient to your committee."

WRIGHT'S DISMISSAL AGAIN DEMANDED BY SPECIAL GRAND JURY.

Reiterating that William J. Wright, Deputy Commissioner of Correction, is not an efficient public servant and should be removed from office, the Extraordinary Grand Jury to-day presented to Justice Goff a request that the report of its investigations of Dec. 18, 1917, into the management of the Tombs be forwarded to Gov. Sulzer for action. Another copy of the report will be forwarded to Commissioner of Correction Whitney.

The Grand Jury's presentation to-day recited that copies of its former presentation had been sent to Gov. Dix and to Mayor Gaynor, without action being taken relative to Wright's dismissal or to an independent investigation of his conduct or of the condition of the city prison.

Justice Goff is asked to again lay the specific findings of the Grand Jury before the Governor, the Mayor and Commissioner Whitney.

WARSHIPS RUSHED TO MAKE TURKEY VIED TO POWERS

Fleets of Big Nations to Combine in Action on the Accepted Balkan Terms.

CONSTANTINOPLE RIOTS

Fighting All Over City and Many Arrests Following Killing of Nazim Pasha.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Italian, British and other warships have been ordered to proceed immediately to Turkish waters, according to dispatches from Mediterranean ports, which announce that there is considerable activity among the fleets of the great powers.

This is regarded as the first step to force Turkey to keep her agreement in the acceptance of the note of the Powers, which included the surrender of Adrianople.

A speedy resumption of the Balkan war is regarded probable by diplomats here.

At a meeting of the peace delegates of the Balkan nations this evening, called to discuss the Turkish crisis, it was decided to await developments. In the meanwhile the representatives of Greece, Serbia and Montenegro are asking their respective governments to authorize them to break off negotiations whenever they consider the moment opportune, as has been done already in the case of Bulgaria.

TURKEY RECALLS HER PEACE ENVOYS FROM LONDON.

The new Turkish Cabinet has decided to recall the Ottoman peace delegates from London, according to a news agency dispatch from Constantinople. The Turkish Government is said also to have requested the Ambassadors at Vienna and St. Petersburg to return to the Turkish capital.

Enver Bey, the most spirited leader of the Young Turks, was appointed today Chief of the General Staff of the Turkish army.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 24.—A. M. A. M.—Fighting has occurred at several places in the city to-day. A dozen or more persons have been wounded, and many arrests have been made. Great public excitement has followed the killing of Nazim Pasha, the former War Minister and commander of the Turkish army, who was shot during the public demonstrations here last night.

Enver Bey, who has taken such a prominent part in the overthrow of the Sultan's Cabinet, is a popular hero. Nazim Pasha's death by a shot from the revolver of Enver Bey, or from that of Talat Bey, is believed to have been accidental. The two officers, in order to protect themselves from the fire of Nazim Pasha's camp, who had shot at them from a window, drew their revolvers and emptied them at him. The bullets struck and killed Nazim Pasha, who was seated inside the room.

The funeral of Nazim Pasha took place this morning. The new Grand Vizier, and Minister of War, Mahmud Shekik Pasha, an old comrade of the dead commander-in-chief, was present. The cabinet swore allegiance to the Sultan.

After the burial the members of the Cabinet went to the palace and took the oath of allegiance to the Sultan. The Sultan, who is recovering from his illness, was present. The Grand Vizier, and Minister of War, Mahmud Shekik Pasha, an old comrade of the dead commander-in-chief, was present. The cabinet swore allegiance to the Sultan.

INDIAN THORPE ISN'T A "PRO," SAYS SULLIVAN

Baseball Manager Denies "All Around Champion" Ever Played for Him.

After a long-distance telephone talk with Glen Warner, athletic coach of Carleton University, James E. Sullivan, Secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, late this afternoon sat down to deny emphatically that Thorpe, the famous Indian athlete, had been guilty of professionalism and would have his prize won at the Olympic games taken away from him.

It was charged that Charles C. C. manager of the Winston-Salem, N. C., baseball team, had stated that Thorpe, a professional ball player, had been in the team and tried out as a pitcher. This was supposed to have been prior to the Olympic games.

Mr. Sullivan said that Mr. Warner had received a letter from Mr. C. C. which he read to him over the phone.

In this letter, said Mr. Sullivan, "Manager C. C. said that Thorpe had never played ball for him at all; that he had never received a cent of money from him in any way, and that he had never heard of Thorpe pitching. He said that Thorpe was a professional ball player, and that he had been in the team of the Winston-Salem once on a hunting trip, and that he had put on a uniform and practiced a few minutes. A photograph was taken of him in this uniform, and the manager of the Winston-Salem team said that Thorpe had been a professional."

This, according to Mr. Sullivan, closes the incident.

XMAS RELIC NEARLY FATAL.

The custom of keeping the Christmas tree until Easter proved nearly fatal to the family of George Reis, of No. 70 South Railroad avenue, Elmhurst, L. I., this afternoon. While the mother was out of the room her two children, Sadie and George, aged four and six, amused themselves by lighting the tree. It toppled over and in a moment the children were in the flames.

Their screams attracted the mother's attention and she rushed them with great difficulty. After the fire was extinguished the children were found to be but slightly burned, but Mrs. Reis sustained severe burns about the face.

The committee adjourned until Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
